Meet the author: Caroline Eriksson

Please join us for an evening with the Swedish author Caroline Eriksson. She will tell us about her career, read from one of her books and answer questions from the audience.

Date for Swedish event: Wednesday May 30th 2018, 7:00PM

At UBC, 1873 East Mall, room 997 in Buchanan Tower

Date for English Event: Thursday May 31st 2018, 7:00PM

This event is focused on the students taking the “Scandinavian Crime Fiction” course at UBC but our members are welcome to attend (limited seats).

The event is free for members of the Swedish Cultural Society and SWEA but we kindly ask that you register by sending an email to sweavancouver@gmail.com before May 27th (limited seats for both events). Light food will be served.

Caroline Eriksson has published four books; Djävulen hjälpte mig (2013), Inga gudar jämte mig (2014), The Missing (2015) and Hon som vakar (2017). The Missing became a sensation when it was sold to more than twenty countries in a short period of time and was also released in the United States and ended up on the top 5 of Amazon's best-selling books.
